14 JUL 2015
8. CONDITIONS, RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION AND REALIZATION

8.1 Every subscriber shall subscribe monthly to the Fund.

8.2 A subscriber may, at his option, not subscribe during any kind of leave exceeding one month or during the period of suspension.

PROVIDED this shall be expressed by the subscriber in writing to the Secretary before the subscription is due and in the absence of such intimation, the subscriber shall be deemed to have opted to subscribe.

PROVIDED further that a subscriber, if he has elected not to subscribe, on reinstatement after a period passed under suspension, shall be allowed the option of paying in one sum of installments, any sum not exceeding the maximum amount of arrears of subscriptions payable for that period.

8.3 The rate of subscription shall be fixed by the subscriber subject to the following:

(a) it shall be expressed in whole rupees (50 paise and above as the next higher rupee).

(b) it may be any sum so expressed not less than 12% of his pay or as it may be announced by the Government from time to time subject to the approval of the Council and not more than his pay.

8.4 The rate of subscription may be varied by the subscriber for any year commencing on the 1st day of April by giving an intimation in writing of such variation to the Secretary.

8.4.1 PROVIDED that when the amount of subscription is so reduced, it shall not be less than the minimum, provided in Clause 8.3.

PROVIDED further that if a subscriber is on duty for part of a month and on leave for the remainder of that month, and if he has elected not to subscribe during leave, the amount of subscription payable shall be proportionate to the number of days spent on duty in the month.

8.5 The subscription for any month shall be recovered by the Institution from the salaries of the subscriber for that month at the time of payment. In case of any omission or clerical error, such recoveries shall be effected from the subsequent monthly salaries of the subscriber.

9. CONTRIBUTIONS BY THE INSTITUTION

9.1 The Institution shall, with effect from 31st March of each year, make a contribution to the account of each subscriber.

PROVIDED that if a subscriber quits the service or dies or removed from service as per Staff Service Rules during a year, contribution shall be credited to his account for the period between the close of the preceding year and the date of casualty.

PROVIDED further no contribution shall be payable in respect of any period of leave or suspension for which the subscriber is permitted not to or does not subscribe to the Fund.

9.2 The Contribution shall be such percentage of the subscriber’s pay drawn on duty during the year or period as the case may be, as has been or may be prescribed by the Institution as per Regulation 8.3.

9.3 The amount of contribution payable shall be rounded to the nearest whole rupee (50 paise and above counting as the next higher rupee).

10. INTEREST

10.1 (a) The Institution shall pay proportionately to the credit of the account of the subscriber interest, so earned on savings/ investments of the Fund, every year subject to the maximum rate as the Government may time to time prescribe.

10.2 Interest shall be credited in the following manner:

(a) On the amount to the credit of the subscriber on the 31st day of March of the proceeding year, less any sums withdrawn during the current year - interest for 12 months.

(b) On sums withdrawn during the current year-interest from the 1st April of the current year up to the last day of the month preceding the month of withdrawal;

(c) On all sums credited to the subscribers account after the 31st of March of the preceding year - interest from the date of the deposit up to the 31st March of the current year;

(d) The total amount of the interest shall be rounded to the nearest rupee (fifty paise and above counting as the next higher rupee).
PROVIDED that when the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber has become payable, interest thereon shall be credited under this Regulation in respect only of the period from the beginning of the current year or from the date of deposit as the case may be, up to the date on which the amount standing to the credit of the subscriber became payable.

10.3 For the purpose of this Regulation, the date of deposit shall, in the case of recoveries from salaries be deemed to be the first day of the month in which they are recovered; and in the case of amounts forwarded by the subscriber under Regulation 5.2 shall be deemed to be the first day of the month of receipt, if they are received by the Secretary before the fifth day of that month, or, if they are received on or after the fifth day of the month the first day of the next succeeding month.

PROVIDED that where there has been a delay in drawl of salaries and consequently in the recovery of his subscription towards the Fund, the interest on such subscription shall be payable from the month in which the salary of the subscriber was due under the Rules, irrespective of the month in which it was actually drawn.

10.4 In addition to any amount to be paid under Regulation 18, interest thereon up to the end of the month preceding that in which the payment is made, or up to the end of the sixth month in which such amount became payable, whichever of these periods is less, shall be payable to the person to whom such amount is to be paid:

PROVIDED no interest shall be paid in respect of any period after which the Secretary has intimated to that person (or his agent) as the date on which he is prepared to make payment cash or if he pays by cheque, after the date on which the cheque in that persons favour is put in the post.

10.5 Interest shall not be credited to the account of a subscriber, if he informs the Accounts Officer, that he does not wish to receive it; but if he subsequently asks for interest, it shall be credited with effect from the first of April of the year in which he asks for it.

10.6 The interest on amounts which under Regulation 16.1 or Regulation 16.2 are replaced to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund, shall be calculated at such rates as may be successively prescribed in Regulation 10.1.

11. ADVANCES FROM THE FUND

11.1 A temporary advance may be granted to a subscriber from the amount standing to his credit in his account for one or more of the following purposes:
(a) to pay any expenses in connection with prolonged illness, confinement or a disability, including where necessary, the travelling expenses of the subscriber, member(s) of his family or any person actually dependent on him;

(b) to meet the cost of higher education, including where necessary the travelling expenses of the subscriber and member(s) of his family or any person actually dependent on him in the following cases namely:

(i) for education outside India for academic, technical, professional or vocational course beyond the High School stage; and

(ii) for any medical, engineering or other technical or specialized course in India beyond the High School stage, provided the course of study is for not less than three years;

(c) to pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the subscriber’s status, which by customary usage, the subscriber has to incur in connection with betrothals, marriage, funerals or other ceremonies;

(d) to meet the cost of legal proceedings instituted by or against the subscriber, any member of his family or any person actually dependent on him.

(e) To meet the cost of subscriber’s defence where he is prosecuted by the Institution in any court of law or where he engages a legal practitioner to defend himself in any enquiry in respect of any alleged official misconduct or his part:

PROVIDED that the advance under this Sub-clause shall not be admissible to a subscriber either in respect of any legal proceedings instituted by him in any court of law against the Institution as regards any penalty imposed on him or any condition of service or in regard to any matter unconnected with his official duties.

Note: A subscriber shall be permitted to take an advance once in every six months under Regulation 11.1(b).

11.2 An advance shall not, save for special reasons, exceed the three months pay or half the amount of subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund, whichever is less.

11.3 The President may, in special circumstances, sanction an advance to the subscriber, if he is satisfied that the subscriber concerned requires the advance for reasons other than those mentioned in Regulation 11.1.
11.4 An advance shall not, except for special reasons to be recorded in writing be granted to any subscriber in excess of the limit laid down in Regulation 11.2 or until repayment of the last installment of any previous advance:

PROVIDED that an advance shall in no case exceed two-thirds of the amount of subscriptions and interest standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.

11.5 The sanctioning authority of advances, for which reasons are required under Regulations 11.2 and/or Regulation 11.3, shall be the President and in other cases will be the Honorary Treasurer.

12. RECOVERY OF ADVANCES

12.1 An advance sanctioned under Regulation 11, shall be recovered from the subscriber, in such number of equal monthly installments, as the sanctioning authority may direct; but shall not be less than twelve, unless the subscriber so elects and in any case more than twenty four. In special cases where the amount exceeds three months’ pay under Regulation 11.2, the sanctioning authority may fix more number of installments not exceeding thirty six. Each installment shall be a number of whole rupees.

12.2 (a) Recovery shall be made in the manner provided in Regulation 8.5 and shall commence with the issue of pay following the one in which advance was drawn.

(b) It shall be competent for the sanctioning authority to direct not to make the recovery, except with the subscribers’ consent, while he is in receipt of subsistence grant or during leave exceeding one month.

12.3 If an advance has been granted to a subscriber and drawn by him and the advance is subsequently disallowed before repayment is completed, the whole or balance of the amount withdrawn shall forthwith be repaid by the subscriber to the Fund or in default, be ordered by the sanctioning authority to be recovered by deduction from the emoluments of the subscriber in a lump sum or in monthly installments not exceeding twelve as may be directed by it.

12.4 Recoveries made under this Regulation shall be credited to the subscribers’ account in the Fund.

13. WITHDRAWALS FROM THE FUND

Subject to the conditions specified hereunder, a withdrawal from the Fund by the employee may be sanctioned by the President at any time:
