(Amended Version 35 (d) at Page 44)

35. (a) In case, any member of any class be adjudicated bankrupt, convicted of felony or any other criminal offence, of proven insanity, and in the case of a Organisational Member, if it is placed under voluntary or compulsory winding up, the Governing Council may decide that his name or the name of the Organizational Member, shall be removed from the Register of the Institution and the Secretary General shall communicate such decision to the member according to the Form B in the Schedule.

- (b) Any member of any class who shall act in contravention of Byelaw 7; or shall be alleged to have been admitted to any class as a result of false representation, shall be liable to have his name removed from the Register of the Institution, if the Governing Council shall so decide after taking the matter into consideration and giving such member an opportunity of attending before the Governing Council to defend himself and meet any accusations which may be made against him, and the Secretary General shall communicate the decision to such member according to Form C in the Schedule.

- (c) In case the expulsion of any member of any class be considered expedient by ten or more Corporate members and they think fit to draw up and sign a proposal for such expulsion stating the grounds for expulsion, the same being delivered to the Secretary General, shall be, by him, laid before the Governing Council for consideration. The Governing Council shall in every such case investigate and take the matter into consideration and if in the opinion of the Governing Council it is expedient to appoint a Committee of the Governing Council to make, or assist in making the investigation, they shall appoint a Committee accordingly and shall cause such Committee to report to the Governing Council, and the Governing Council may adopt or reject such report, wholly or in part, and the Governing Council shall give such member an opportunity of attending before the Governing Council, or any Committee, to defend himself and meet any of the accusations made against him and if the Governing Council find good reason for the proposed expulsion they shall direct the Secretary General to address a letter, according to the Form D in the Schedule, to the member proposed to be expelled, advising him to withdraw from the Institution, if that advice is not followed the President shall call a Special Meeting of the Governing Council for the purpose of deciding on the question of expulsion; and if a majority of not less than two third of the members of the Governing Council present at such Special Meeting, provided the number so present be not less than twelve vote that such member be expelled, the Chairman of that meeting shall declare such decision, and the Secretary General shall communicate the same to such member according to the Form E in the Schedule. Such member shall have the right within fourteen days from the date of the said decision to appeal therefrom to a Committee of three consisting of past President or sitting Vice-Presidents or Distinguished Fellows of the Institution nominated for the purpose by the Presidents for the time being of the Institution. Notice in writing of such appeal shall be given within the time aforesaid to the Secretary General of the Institution. Such appeal shall be by way of re-hearing, and decision of the Committee of Appeal shall be final and conclusive. The Governing Council shall have power to extend the time within which notice of appeal may be given.

- (d) In case of any member violating the obligation signed by him as per Byelaw 6, the following clauses shall apply:

If any member of the Institution will-fully disobeys Byelaw 6 or commits its breach, persists in any breach having committed it unwittingly, the matter shall be brought before a standing Honours Committee set up by the Governing Council. The Committee shall investigate the matter and send its report to the Governing Council within three months. The Governing Council will then deliberate on the report and take any of the following courses of action:

- (i) If the report indicates no willful breach of obligation, no further action will be taken.
- (ii) If the report indicates a minor violation, the President, on the advice of the Governing Council, will write to the member suitably, expressing the Governing Council's displeasure.
- (iii) If the concerned member has committed a major violation of the obligation, as determined by the Governing Council, he shall be liable to be removed from the rolls of the Institution for such period as may be decided by the Governing Council.
- (iv) In the case of a member whose name has been removed from the rolls of the Institution under (iii) above, he shall be eligible for re-election after the expiry of the period of removal.

The term of President shall be for one year. He shall retire on completion of his term in office but shall be eligible to re-election for further one year in succession as President, and after completion of his period of office (one or two successive years, as the case may be) he shall not be eligible for election at any time to the Governing Council.

In the event of the President being unable to perform duties of his/her office for any reason, and has served any period, this shall be taken as a term served in the Governing Council. To fill the resultant vacancy, the senior most Vice President will take over as President for the remaining term, however, this period shall not be counted as having served one term in office.

The seniority of the Vice President shall be decided by virtue of longest period served in the Governing Council. In case of a tie, it shall be longest continuous period as Fellow of the Institution. In case of a tie again, it shall be by virtue of age.

The Governing Council of the Institution shall appoint the Returning Officer for conduct of election of the President. The Returning Officer shall be a Past President not serving the Governing Council. The Returning Officer may co-opt one Past President/Distinguished Fellow not in the Governing Council to assist him in the election process.

THE VICE-PRESIDENTS

39. The Vice-Presidents shall be elected from amongst the elected Members of the Governing Council for that year excluding ex-officio members in a meeting of the Governing Council on the eve of the Annual General Meeting. They shall retire each year and will be eligible for re-election. No person shall hold the office of Vice-President for more than three years in succession.

THE HONORARY TREASURER

40. The Honorary Treasurer shall be elected from amongst the elected members of the Governing Council for that year excluding ex-officio members in a meeting of the Governing Council on the eve of the Annual General Meeting. He shall retire each year and will be eligible for re-election. No person shall hold the office of Honorary Treasurer for more than three years in succession.

ELECTED MEMBERS OF THE GOVERNING COUNCIL

41. (a) The term of the elected members of the Governing Council except the President shall be three years including that of the elected Organisational Member.
- (b) The retirement of the Governing Council Members every year shall be according to the following pattern:
- (i) Seven of the elected ordinary members by rotation;
 - (ii) The elected Organisational Member shall retire at the end of 3 years.
- (c) So far as re-election is concerned members falling under byelaw 41 (a) above, shall not be eligible as elected member of the Governing Council until the expiry of one year from the date of their retirement. The period of one year shall be reckoned from the retirement at the Annual General Meeting of that year to the subsequent one. A member who has served the Governing Council for three tenures of three years each, shall not be eligible for re-election to the Governing Council.

- (d) The Corporate Members on the pay rolls of the Institution can be nominated for election to the Governing Council (as well as to elected offices at Centres) after the expiry of one year from the date of their relinquishing the office held at IETE HQ or Centres.
- (e) The Chairmen of Centres, who are ex-officio members in the Governing Council, shall not be eligible as elected members of the Governing Council until the expiry of one year from the date of their retirement as ex-officio member in the Governing Council.

NOMINATION FOR ELECTION TO THE GOVERNING COUNCIL

- 42. (a) The Governing Council shall, not later than the last working day of January in each year, constitute a Board of Scrutineers comprising four or more members including one Returning Officer amongst them for conduct of the Governing Council election.
- (b) (i) Every year and not later than 15 April the Secretary General shall upload on the IETE website (www.iete.org) the Directory of Corporate Members in good standing and entitled for nomination(s) as on 31 March. Simultaneously, Secretary General shall arrange to send an email/SMS to all Corporate Members that the updated Corporate Member directory has been uploaded on the website for online elections.
- (ii) Thus, the total number of Corporate Members in good standing and entitled for nomination(s) as on 31 March each year, will be the Corporate Members listed in the Directory of that year.
- (iii) The online election will be initiated by the Returning Officer on 15 April and intimation through emails/SMS shall be generated automatically to all Corporate Members in good standing and entitled for nomination(s).
- (c) After the updating of the list as stated in Byelaw 42(b) the Corporate members shall nominate candidate(s) online to fill such vacancies, for which the eligibility shall be:
 - (i) The nominee shall fulfill the qualifications given in Byelaws 37 and 41(c), and
 - (ii) The nominee and the nominator shall not be in arrears of subscription.

- (d) The consent of the nominees to accept office if elected thereto shall be obtained online along with a brief bio-data of the nominee not exceeding 100 words, in a format prescribed by the Governing Council from time to time. A Corporate Member shall not nominate more candidates than the number of vacancies declared for election to the Governing Council for that year. The last date of receipt of online nominations duly accepted by the nominee will be 10 May (2400 h).
- (e) The Returning Officer and the members of Board of Scrutineers (BoS) shall not themselves be candidates for any election and should not have nominated any one for the Governing Council election. The Returning Officer shall carry out and be responsible for the conduct of the Governing Council Election involving :
 - (i) Receipt, scrutiny (including authentication of membership status by HQ IETE) and withdrawal (if any) of nominations received online.
 - (ii) Editing of bio-data of candidates received online (if needed).
 - (iii) Uploading of list of candidates along with their Bio-Data on the IETE website.
 - (iv) Online Receipt, Scrutiny & Counting of ballots.
 - (v) Reporting the result to the President.

The Returning Officer will associate at least one member of BoS for the activities at Sl Nos. (i), (ii) and (iii) and at least two members of BoS for Sl No. (iv).

- (f) Any discrepancy/complaint/dispute arising during the election process shall be referred to the Returning Officer who in consultation with the members of the Board of Scrutineers shall take a final decision.

43. Withdrawal of Nominations: The list of valid nominations shall be intimated to each nominee on 15 May and he shall be asked whether he would wish to withdraw his name from the Governing Council election. Last date of withdrawal of nominations is 25 May. The Returning Officer in consultation with the Board of Scrutinee (s) shall then prepare a list of contestants and notification of valid candidates will be done on 27 May of the calendar year.

44. (a) In the event of there being an election, the Returning Officer shall arrange online balloting. The Secretary General shall provide to the Returning Officer, the list of Corporate Members along with their mobile numbers and email addresses as on 31st March. The Returning Officer shall put up the ballot along with the bio data on the IETE website through online voting link by 31 May. The Corporate members in good standing as on 31st March will be eligible for casting the vote. The Returning Officer shall also upload the procedure to be followed for online voting on the IETE website. The Returning Officer shall activate the online voting process from 01 June and deactivate on 30th June(2400 h) every year. The postal balloting system shall be discontinued with effect from 2014 for Governing Council elections at IETE HQ and Executive Committee elections at IETE Centres.
- (b) Online voting facility will close on 30 June (2400 h).
- (c) After on-line voting is closed by the Returning Officer, a meeting of Board of Scrutineers shall be convened by the Returning Officer by associating not less than three members including the Returning Officer for compiling the result of the on-line election. The result shall be compiled by 02 July and submitted to the President IETE duly signed by the members of the Board of Scrutineers present.
45. The office of a member of the Governing Council shall ipso-facto be vacated(a) if he becomes bankrupt or lunatic or (b) if by notice in writing to Institution he resigns his office, or (c) if he ceases to be a member of the Institution, or (d) if he is appointed to a remunerative post in the Institution or (e) if he neither attends any Governing Council Meeting nor sends his considered views on the Agenda items of any Governing Council Meeting for a period of twelve months.

CASUAL VACANCIES

46. Any casual vacancy arising during the year shall not be filled.

PROCEEDINGS, POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE GOVERNING COUNCIL

47. The Governing Council shall direct and manage the property and affairs of the Institution in accordance with the Articles of Association and Byelaws of the Institution and may exercise all such powers of the Institution as may be exercised by the Institution and which are not hereby or by the Articles of Association expressly required to be exercised by the Institution in the General Meetings.

48. The Governing Council shall have the power to borrow money and fulfill all formalities incumbent upon it for the purpose including mortgaging the property. Immovable properties of the Institution held on lease or as free hold from time to time shall not be sold or disposed of except with the sanction of a General Meeting of Corporate members called for that purpose.

For this purpose, the Governing Council may cause the formulation, publication and issue of comprehensive set of rules called Staff Service Rules (or with any other similar nomenclature) laying down the detailed rules covering aspects such as the classification of the Executives and employees, establishment matter, retirement and termination rules, hours of work, holidays and leave, pay and allowances, conduct or discipline, Provident Fund Regulations and matters of a similar nature for guidance and implementation by all concerned.
 57. The Governing Council shall arrange for the publication in any manner which may deem advisable, of such papers, journals, documents etc as may be considered by the Governing Council likely to advance knowledge of Telecommunication Engineering, Electronics, Computer Science and Engineering, Information Technology and allied subjects and the objects of the Institution. The Governing Council shall have full powers to fix the prices of such papers, journals documents etc., as also the rates of advertisements from time to time.
 58. The Governing Council may, at any time, cause examinations to be held for the purpose of testing qualifications of candidates for election or transfer. The Governing Council shall define the subjects to be comprised in such examinations, and shall fix the fee to be paid or deposited by the candidates.

59. The Governing Council may, at any time cause the examinations to be held for the purposes of testing the proficiency and knowledge of persons in Telecommunication Engineering, Electronics, Computer Science and Engineering, Information Technology and allied subjects, and in the applications thereof. The Governing Council may grant certificates on the results of such examinations and shall fix the fee to be paid or deposited in respect thereof.
60. The Governing Council may, upon receipt of a request to that effect from any Society with objects kindred to those of the Institution, arrange for the union, alliance or incorporation of such society with the Institution, and may also, if they think fit, remit or reduce the entrance fee of the members of such society at the time of union, alliance or incorporation provided that no such union or alliance or incorporation shall be effective unless it is sanctioned by an Extraordinary General Meeting of Corporate members.
61. The Governing Council may allow any member except DipIETE, Students (AM), Students (D), to compound his annual subscriptions by payment to the Institution in one sum, a life compounding fee as fixed in Appendix A. The Governing Council may from time to time, prescribe the rules for composition, and the tables of composition fee, each class of membership. When any member who has previously compounded his fee is transferred to a higher category of membership, he shall pay such amount as is prescribed by the Governing Council.

THE SECRETARY GENERAL

62. Subject to the provisions of the Constitution, the Secretary General of the Institution shall be appointed by the Governing Council; he shall, unless otherwise permitted by the Governing Council, devote his whole time to the business of the Institution and shall not engage himself in any other business or profession. The Secretary General shall be directly responsible to the Governing Council through its President and he shall carry out all his duties under the direction of the Governing Council, unless otherwise directed by President. It shall be the duty of the Secretary General to conduct the correspondence of the Institution and of the Governing Council, and to sign all communications and papers emanating from the Institution unless otherwise directed by the Governing Council, to attend meeting of the Institution, of the Governing Council, of the Committees, Sub- Committees and Working

 - (b) The Annual General Meeting;

- (c) Extraordinary General Meeting of the Corporate Members; and
- (d) Special General Meeting of Corporate Members.

The eligible Corporate members alone shall be competent to vote at the meetings specified above.

- 66. In addition to the Ordinary Meetings specified in Byelaw 65, the Governing Council may, at their discretion, arrange for other meetings to be held for the dissemination of knowledge by means of lectures or for the discussion of Telecommunication Engineering, Electronics, Computer Science and Engineering, Information Technology and allied subjects and the reading and discussion of papers thereon and the Governing Council shall determine the conditions of admission to such meetings, and the manner in which they shall be conducted.
- 67. The Ordinary Meetings of the Institution shall be conducted as prescribed by the Governing Council from time to time.
- 68. Every member shall have the privilege of introducing one visitor at each Ordinary Meeting of the Institution, by writing his name in a book provided for that purpose, or supplying him with an admission ticket to be obtained from the Secretary General.
- 69. No question shall be discussed or motion be made, relating to the direction and management of the Institution, at the Ordinary meetings.
- 70. The Annual General Meeting shall be held within six months from the date of closing of the previous financial year. The business of the Annual General Meeting shall be to receive and consider the report of the Governing Council and the accounts of the Institution for the past year, to elect Auditors (with the approval of the Governing Council) to transact (except Amendments to Articles of Association and Byelaws) any other business of which notice in writing shall be given to the Secretary General at least seven days before such meeting.
- 71. An Extraordinary General Meeting of Corporate Members may be called at any time by the Governing Council for any specific purpose relating to the direction and management of the affairs of the Institution except revoking, altering, or amending any of the provisions of the Byelaws of the Institution, and the Governing Council shall, at all times, call such a meeting on a requisition in writing from two hundred Corporate Members on the rolls as on 31 March of the previous year, including not less than 5% of such members from each of at least 5 Centres as defined in Byelaw 37, specifying the general nature of business to be transacted.

72. A Special General Meeting of Corporate Members for the purpose of revoking, altering or amending any of the provisions of the Byelaws of the Institution may be called at any time by the Governing Council, and the Governing Council shall, at all times, call such a meeting on a requisition, in writing from two hundred Corporate Members on the rolls as on 31 March of the previous year, including not less than 5% of such Members from each of at least 5 Centres as defined in Byelaw 37, specifying the alterations in, or amendments of, the provisions of the Byelaws suggested by them.

PROCEEDINGS AND MEETINGS

73. Votes may be given at Annual, Extraordinary or Special General meetings either personally or by proxy. Voting by proxy (Form F in the Schedule) is, however, allowed only at Extraordinary or Special General meetings. On a show of hands, every member of any class present in person and entitled to vote at such meeting shall have one vote. In case of a poll, every member of any class present in person or by proxy entitled to vote at such meeting, shall have one vote.
74. No person shall be appointed by a proxy to vote at any meeting who is not entitled, in his own right, to vote at such meeting.
75. The instrument of appointing proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or his attorney and shall, as nearly as circumstances will admit, be in the Form prescribed by the Governing Council from time to time.
76. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed shall be posted so as to reach the Secretary General at the office of the Institution not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in the proxy proposes to vote, but the instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid only for the meeting or meetings and the adjournments thereof, specified in the form.
77. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the principal or revocation of the proxy unless previous intimation in writing of the death or revocation shall have been received at the office of the Institution.
78. A poll may be demanded by the Chairman of any Annual, Extraordinary or Special General Meeting or by any three persons personally present and entitled to vote thereat, and if so demanded, shall be taken in such - manner and at such time within twenty-eight days next after the meeting and at such place as the Chairman of the meeting directs and either immediately or after an interval or at an adjourned meeting, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The fact that a poll has been demanded shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.

79. In the case of equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall, both on a show of hands and at a poll, have only a casting vote and he shall exercise it.
 80. The quorum at any Annual, Extraordinary or Special General Meeting shall be fifty of those persons entitled to be present and vote thereat and no business shall be transacted at any such meeting unless the quorum be present at the commencement of the business. If a quorum is not present at the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting will be adjourned, and the adjourned meeting can reassemble after 30 minutes. No quorum is necessary at the reassembled meeting.
 81. Fourteen days notice at least shall be given of all Annual, Extraordinary and Special General Meetings. The notice shall specify the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no other business shall be transacted at those meeting except such business (if any) at any Annual General meeting of which notice shall have been given as provided in Byelaw 70. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to any member of any class shall not invalidate the meeting.
 82. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Governing Council and Ordinary and General Meetings of the Institution at which he is present. In the absence of the President, one of the Vice- Presidents, or if none present, a member of Governing Council present shall preside.
 83. No reports of the proceedings at any meeting of the Institution or of the Centres shall be taken or published except with the consent of the Governing Council previously obtained.

CENTRE(S)

84. (a) The Governing Council, on satisfying itself of the number of Corporate members as it may decide from time to time, shall establish one Centre in each State/Union Territory, and it shall be known as the Centre with geographical boundary as defined by the Governing Council. The Governing Council may further, at its discretion, on receipt of a request from the requisite number of Corporate members as may be laid down by it from time to time, establish one or more Sub - Centre of the Institution under the jurisdiction of a Centre.

- (b) Notwithstanding anything contained in Byelaw 84 (a) above, the Governing Council, may if considered appropriate, permit establishment and functioning of one Centre/Sub Centre for two or more geographically adjoining States. The Governing Council may also permit the setting up of more than one Centre in a State.
 - (c) The Governing Council shall have the power to dissolve the Centre(s) and/or Sub-Centre(s) at any time after they have been formed and take any action in their affairs as the Governing Council may deem necessary.
85. (a) Each Centre, and Sub-Centre as defined in Byelaw 84(a), (b) and (c), shall be constituted and its affairs shall be managed and carried on in accordance with Byelaws, Rules and Regulations and procedures to be laid down from time to time by the Governing Council, for furthering the objectives of the Institution.
- (b) No Centre/Sub Centre shall do anything which is detrimental to the overall interest of the Institution.

ESTABLISHMENT OF OTHER BODIES

86. The Governing Council may establish, promote Colleges, Universities, Centres of Advanced Studies/forums and such other peripherals bodies, as it may deem fit, at a suitable location in furthering the objects and purposes of the Institution.

The affairs of such Institutions shall be managed and carried on by a Governing Body duly constituted under the Rules, Regulations and Statutes as may be approved by the Governing Council of the Institution

GRANT OF CHARTER

87. Every practicing engineer who is a Life Fellow of the Institution and has completed a minimum of five years as a Fellow or Life Member who has completed a minimum of 10 years as a member, is eligible to apply to describe himself as a Chartered Engineer and in using that description after his name of C Eng(IETE), it shall be placed before the designation of the class in the Institution to which he belongs, namely FIETE, MIETE. The eligibility will be examined by the Governing Council of IETE or a Committee as appointed by the Governing Council. The fee for grant of Charter Status will be decided by the Governing Council of IETE from time to time.

- (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Byelaw a person shall cease to have any right to designate himself as a Chartered Engineer in case he ceases to be a Fellow or Member of the Institution for any reason whatsoever.
- (b) A Fellow or Member practicing in partnership with any person who is not a Fellow or Member, under the title of a firm shall not use or permit to be used after the title of such firm the designation Chartered Engineer or Chartered Engineers, or describe or permit the description of such firm in any way as Chartered Engineers.

A register will be maintained in respect of such Chartered Engineers.

INVESTMENTS

- 88. All such moneys of the Institution as are not required to meet the current expenditure of the Institution may be invested in such scheduled Banks or Government Securities as may be approved by the Governing Council.

COPYRIGHT
